MANDYA DISTRICT.

Notification dated 18th February 1952.

No. J2. PR 203—51. Whereas it is reported that the Shivarathri Jatra at Mahadeswara Hills in Kollegal Taluk, which is on the frontier of Mandya District, is to come off on the 23rd February 1952 and whereas past experience has shown that outbreaks of cholera have occurred and spread during and after the jatra and may similarly occur and spread this year also, I, Sri C. Narasimha Moorty, M.A., District Magistrate, Mandya District, do hereby apprise the public the danger of proceeding to the jatra.

Persons proceeding to the said jatra in spite of the above warning should get themselves inoculated against cholera before they start and obtain certificates of inoculation. Those who proceed to the jatra without possessing cholera inoculation certificates on returning from the jatra without certificates of having been inoculated, will not be allowed to cross the frontier of Mandya District.
